

Student Cameramen Have Work Exhibited at Fair

Award-winning pictures of three El Camino College students have been exhibited at the Los Angeles County Fair.

John Roberts, Gardena, is the winner of a bronze medal for his baseball picture, "Home Th Hard Way," taken for the Torrance Herald. Jesse Amado, who resides at 2744 W. Artesia, has two pictures on exhibition: "Y're Out!!," a baseball shot, and "Flag Pole Painter," a candid illustration.

Frank Sweeney's photo is an architectural view of the Seattle World Fair's Space Needle. Sweeney resides at 22512 Landeene Ave.

COMPETITION came from 30 junior colleges in Southern California. Photos were judged on technical quality, composition and story telling. Pictures on exhibit gained a minimum of 27 points or better.

"L. A. Trade Tech took the college plaque, as usual," Donald Brown, El Camino photography instructor said.

Six El Camino students entered a total of 20 prints in the contest. In comparison, almost all photography students at Los Angeles Trade and Technical College entered the maximum number of six photos per entrant.

ROBERTS' bronze medal winner earned 33 points. Roberts was a photography editor for the Warrior, El Camino's year book. In addition he was a feature editor, reporter, photographer on the Warhoop, the campus newspaper.

Amado was awarded 29 points for "Y're out!!," a picture that appeared in El Camino's bi-annual magazine, Warrior Life. Amado is a staff photographer for Warrior Life and the Warhoop. His shot of a "Flag Pole Painter" gained 28 points in competition.

Sweeney's Seattle Space Needle" captured 29 points. Sweeney works on the Warrior Life and is the newly appointed news editor of the Warhoop.

Overeater Anonymous Club Meets

Honesty and patience are given as among the main principles of Overeater Anonymous a Torrance organization which meets one night a week at a local park.

The group helps to bring its members back to normal eating habits. Dedicated to a common goal of losing weight and keeping it off, Overeater Anonymous meets each Thursday evening at 8 at El Retiro Park on Vista Del Parque, just off Pacific Coast Highway.

At the weekly meetings the members tell their success stories, give and get moral encouragement to lose weight and keep weight down.

"THEY SEEK to bring about a spiritual change as well as a physical one. They believe that you cannot crash diet your way to normal weight and expect to stay there unless you know what caused you to become obese in the first place," according to a spokesman for the club.

Only requirement for membership is a desire to stop eating compulsively. There are no restrictions as to weight, sex, color, or faith.

Recreation Area Slated For Seniors

A contract for construction of a senior citizens' recreation area at Alondra County Park in Lawndale was awarded this week to the Vlier Contracting Co. of Studio City, according to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn. Vlier was the lowest of six bidders with a proposal of $37,728.

The senior citizens' area will be constructed on the Manhattan Beach Boulevard side of the park (near Prairie) between an existing baseball diamond and recreation building.

Four horseshoe pits, four shuffleboard courts, a picnic area, and a sunshelter are included in the plans. A six-foot high concrete wall will enclose a portion of the area.

The sun shelter will be 16x39 feet and provide an area where senior citizens may relax and observe youngsters at play in the park.

Alondra Park is located at 3612 W. Manhattan Beach Blvd. Its varied facilities range from an 18-hole golf course to camp-out areas.

Construction of the area will take approximately 90 days, Hahn said.
